For further details on completing the nomination see Guidelines for Completion.

Eligibility

CGA Honorary Membership is awarded to a member of the public. Honorary membership is conferred by unanimous consent of the Board of Governors of CGA-BC.

Nomination

Nominations can be made by any five members. All candidates must be recommended to the Board by the Honours & Awards Committee. The nomination form must be completed and signed and accompanied by a narrative describing the recipient's demonstrated qualities as outlined, together with appropriate documentation.

Completed nominations must be received by March 15th of each year. The nomination is judged solely on the information provided.

HONORARY MEMBERSHIP:
Guidelines for Completion of the Nomination

Honorary Membership is awarded for contribution to the general welfare of the Association. Honorary Membership is the most significant recognition that can be offered to a member of the public.

The information and documentation provided to the Honours & Awards Committee must clearly identify the nominee and reflect the activities being recognized in the narrative.

Consider including:

- details on the member's participation in CGA-BC, including participation and years of service
- public speaking engagements on professional issues on behalf of CGA-BC
- using their professional profile to enhance the image of the Association
- evidence of significant conspicuous service to the Association
- considerable contributions to our educational objectives

Include evidence of participation and acknowledgement, such as:

- newspaper articles
- announcements
- letters of support

Service to the Association must be over many years and the nominee is expected to have contributed to the growth of CGA-BC, our vision and the establishment of CGA's professional image and reputation.

Significant material contribution to the Association may also be considered in the awarding of an honorary CGA.
